DR. ED PEARSON III
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR COMPUTER SCIENCE

Contact Information

320, Arthur J. Bond Hall
Alabama A&M University
Normal, AL 35762
Email: ed.pearson@aamu.edu
Phone: 1-(256)-372-4480

Education
Ph.D. Mississippi State University, Computer Science, 2018
M.S. Alabama A&M University, Computer Science, 2010
B.S. Alabama A&M University, Computer Science, 2007

Teaching
Fundamentals of Computer & Information System
Introduction to Programming I
Object Oriented Design with UML
Cryptography
Forensic Computing
Programming Language

Research Interests
Cyber/Information Security
Digital Forensics
Human Computer Interaction (HCI)
Software Engineering
Networks
Cognitive Psychology

Publications
Conference Papers
(Peer-Reviewed)

E. Pearson, C. L. Bethel, A. F. Jarosz, and M. E. Berman, "'To click or not to click is the question': Fraudulent URL identification accuracy in a community sample," in 2017 IEEE International Conference on Systems, Man, and Cybernetics (SMC), 2017, pp. 659–664.

Pearson E., and Bethel C. L., "A Design Review: Concepts for Mitigating SQL Injection Attacks," 4th International Symposium on Digital Forensics and Security, IEEE, Little Rock, AK, 25-27 April 2016, pp. 169-173.

Professional Affiliations

Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers (IEEE)