

GRADUATE WRITING STUDIO

The Graduate Writing Studio is a writing service for graduate students provided by the Graduate Student Success Center (GSSC) in collaboration with The "Write Place." Here, graduate students receive one-on-one support for their writing as they work on completion of Master's Reports, Theses and Dissertations.

- Graduate students will be assigned to a faculty reviewer after their document has been reviewed and approved by their academic advisor and submitted to the graduate school.
- Graduate students is expected to commit to improving their writing skills, not just completing their final document.

What to expect:

- Students will meet with faculty reviewer as often as needed, but no more than twice per week.
- Each appointment should last between 45 minutes to 1 hour.
- After working with faculty tutor for 1st review, student will be assigned to a second faculty tutor for 2nd review
